Yearbook Correction!

The AGO Yearbook published an incorrect version of the Young Organists Initiative Ad. Here is the correct information for the Scholarship Auditions. The auditions [requiring only a demonstration of keyboard skill on piano or organ] are open to those who have never received a YOI Scholarship in the past. Applicants must be 12 - 18 years of age or in Grades 6 - 12. The auditions will be held at St. Paul Church (the Archdiocesan Choir School) at Bow and Arrow Streets in Cambridge on Saturday, January 26, 2008 at 11:00 AM. Applications are due by January 21, 2008 and may be obtained by contacting Mary Sue Willie (cvmswillie@comcast.net) or Stephanie Budwey (sbudwey@hotmail.com)

Dean's Message

All the little elves and fairies here at the deanery wish you all a Happy Hanukah (any way you spell it), Sun-affirming Solstice, Fun Festivus, Carolous Christmas, Kool Kwanzaa, and a Nice New Year!

Dress warmly, take your multi-vitamins, stay hydrated, and, should you not quite make it to eight hours of sleep per night, make sure to catch up in January.

See you on the other side.

--Heinrich

Editor's Message

Just a few items of administrivia...

- Changes in contact information should go to Tim Hughes, membership secretary, and not to me. Tim will make sure our central records are updated, which will in turn ensure the update of the Chapter and Newsletter mailing lists.
- We get a fair number of event announcements that are missing information, most commonly contact and pricing information, but we have also received notices without locations, or even without time or date! Our policy is to publish any calendar entry that has at least a time, date, performer, and location, but you are potentially limiting your audience by not submitting all the information called for (see page 6).
- Please note that the Chapter mailing list (BAGO-Announce) is limited to official Chapter business and events. This was decided by the executive committee years ago. Opening it up to other announcements would unacceptably flood members' e-mail. Note that mailing list address labels are available from the membership secretary at a modest cost if you wish to do your own publicity.

Best regards.

-- Jim Swist

Message from Cheryl Duerr

I am excited and honored to be serving as your New England Regional Coordinator for Education. It has been inspiring working with our new Regional Councilor E Lary Grossman of the Springfield Chapter, our District Convener Frank Corbin of the Worcester Chapter, and my counterpart for Professional Concerns Donald Funk of the Hartford Chapter. I'm a life-long learner who, in addition to my work as musician at The Church of Our Redeemer in Lexington, MA, runs Life Guides, a consulting practice helping clients develop their human potential and make successful, planned change in their lives. I view this new position as a wonderful opportunity to help musicians on the path to learning, growth and achievement in their lives.

The Certification process offers individuals an avenue for growth and skill certification. Moreover, to our Boston chapter it offers a link to building up and maintaining membership, a means of identifying new leaders, and a way to draw in students and community musicians and provide opportunities for mentoring – thus contributing to the strength and vitality of the chapter while raising professional standards. I myself found a wonderful avenue for learning, the support of newly found colleagues, and opportunities to contribute my energy, enthusiasm, and creativity, and caring to build up the profession. Please consider taking one of the exams, or supporting a colleague in this worthy endeavor. Our Chapter Exam Coordinator is Glenn Goda, AAGO. He or I would be happy to talk to anyone with questions about the process. In addition, I would love to hear any suggestions, offers of help teaching review classes or mentoring, or to hear from anyone needing a friendly push toward certification.

Especially critical to the Guild's mission are its programs of outreach to encourage new organists, including Pipe Organ Encounters, PipeWorks, and Pedals, Pipes and Pizza. The Boston Chapter's Young Organists Initiative is very active in this drawing out and support of new organists, and The Year of the Organ in 2008 promises to have many fine offerings for us all to enjoy and learn from. The national website Agohq.org has a wealth of information on the many Guild Educational offerings and resources.

As organists, we are privileged to do what we love in service to others. Through Guild Educational programs, we can leverage our love and service by teaching, mentoring, and raising up new musicians and leaders. I hope you will contact me if I can assist you on this road toward the Guild's mission and legacy of education and growth.

Sincerely,

-- Cheryl Duerr, AAGO

Pedals, Pipes and Pizza a Great Success!

Ten young people plus parents and teachers came to First Church Congregational in the wind and rain on October 27th. Peter Sykes was a gracious host demonstrating the Frobenius as well as the Chapel organ and a two rank portativ instrument. Everyone had an opportunity to try each instrument. The group then processed down Garden Street to Christ Church where Stuart Forster gave a history, demonstrated and performed on the year-old Schoenstein pipe organ. Again, everyone who wished had an opportunity to play the instrument, and following a pizza lunch, several kids returned to play more, after being reminded to wash their hands, most carefully! All in all it was a very good day.

Children's Festival

The Springfield/Hartford Chapter of Choristers Guild will be holding their 21st Annual "Festival of Singing Children" on April 26, 2008. It will take place at United Congregational Church of Holyoke, home of the historic Skinner organ, at the corner of High & Appleton Streets, Holyoke, Massachusetts. The director for this year's festival will be Helen Kemp. She has been training singers, teachers and conductors in the art of choral singing for more than six decades. Helen is known internationally as a specialist in the area of training young voices, and has served as guest conductor and clinician in all 50 states as well as in countries around the world in both university and church settings. She is a composer of anthems for children and adults.

If you have a children's choir, we invite you to be a part of this special day with Helen Kemp. We will be doing anthems for the church year which she has chosen. If you would like to participate I will send you the list of the music and put you on our mailing list. [[You may reach me at dehoot@verizon.net, or by phone at (413) 533-8412.

Everyone is invited to attend the festival which will begin at 2:00 o'clock in the sanctuary of United Church. There is no admission charge.

Thanks for your help and support,

-- Don Hooton
