Chapter Programs

BAGO “Get Acquainted” Dinner
Sunday, February 20, 5:00 p.m.
Jacob Wirth Restaurant,
31-37 Stuart Street, Boston

Our February program is a social gathering for members, spouses, and friends. We’ll enjoy each other’s company as we visit and share ideas – or sob stories! Two years ago, Sub-Dean Joyce Painter Rice planned a similar event for the Chapter at this restaurant, and some 30 people turned out for an enjoyable evening. We’ve chosen the same place again because of its central location, ease of access, and ability to accommodate us.

In the heart of the theater district, Jacob Wirth’s is a classic European restaurant with a contemporary American flair – a “Best of Boston” winner with a menu of traditional German specialties and current American favorites. The extensive menu has numerous moderately-priced items. We will order food & drink individually and pay by separate checks. This may make for slightly slower service, but attendees may splurge or restrain as they see fit.

For reservations, please contact BAGO executive committee member David Tierney, by Thursday, February 17: d.tierney@rivers.org, 617-872-7623. (The Sub-Dean plans to attend but will be away the previous week.)

Parking: Boston parking meter spaces are free on Sundays, and some are nearby. The parking lot next to the restaurant takes $3 off its regular rate with validation from the restaurant. Several blocks away, the Boston Common Garage has a flat rate of $11.

Come, and meet old friends, and make new ones!

—Dan McKinley, Sub-Dean

Program Planning

The BAGO program committee will meet soon to plan events for the 2011-2012 season. Please send ideas and suggestions to Sub-Dean Dan McKinley, dan.mckinley@ctr-anglican.org, 978-774-3163 x353.

Convention Corner February 2011

January’s planning Charrette for the 2014 Convention will be passed by the time you receive this, BUT we are still interested in hearing from you!

Please go to the URL below to participate in a brief survey:

- What is new, unique, and exciting the Boston choral/organ world?
- What can we learn from your own Convention experiences?
- What performances and workshops would you really like to see?
- How can you participate, both now and later?

Take the survey at www.surveymonkey.com/s/RV2CYV8

By Easter the Steering Committee will be formed and meeting – now is the time to get involved!

Next month: a Convention timeline, and the inauguration of our Facebook page.

—Mark Dirksen, 2014 Convention Chair

Important: Executive Committee Meeting Change

The January meeting of the Executive Committee was postponed until Tuesday, February 8. Please correct your calendars accordingly.

Dean's Message

February in Boston.....more snow, more cold, probably more grey days than blue. It takes more effort to go out, so my "inner hermit" takes over. And being an organist can be a rather lonely profession. We practice in cold, dark churches and warm our hands by the space heater. Compared to other musicians, we seldom have ensemble experiences. We play an instrument that few people understand. And in typical New England churches, we're the only musician on staff.

In this month of valentines and chocolates, perhaps our spirits could be warmed by some good old-fashioned collegiality with other Guild members. We have the Feb. 20 dinner at Jacob Wirth Restaurant. We could also invite colleagues from neighboring churches to have brunch together some Sunday (how 'bout it, Robert, Jim, Mary Sue, Liz, Eric?). Or invite someone we haven't seen in a while to come with us to a concert or Chapter program. We could introduce ourselves and others to at least one person we don't already know at the next Guild event. You could even send a dozen red roses to the Dean!

Happy Hearts to you all,

—Vickie Wagner, Dean

AGO Organ Library News

Near the end of last year, our library received the generous gift of the entire organ music library - 35 boxes of it - of Douglas Rafter, who many will remember as having been organist for many years of the famed Kotschmar organ in Portland's City Hall. Mr. Rafter, now in his 90s, expressly desired that his lifetime collection of organ scores be donated to the AGO Organ Library, and Portland AGO member Peter Plumb transported it all to the library in a van. It is the largest collection we have ever received, and we estimate that it will take nearly two months to fully process it. Meanwhile, the library will be somewhat in disarray until everything is sorted, catalogued and filed. In addition to his own personal collection, Mr. Rafter had inherited the music library of his teacher, Boston organist John Herman Loud, whose name is found on many of the older scores.

POE BOSTON

ADVANCED TECHNICAL
17-22 JULY 2011

Now just six months away,
plans for Boston's two concurrent Pipe Organ
Encounters continue to progress!

Did you know...

*Boston's POE/Advanced has the most accomplished faculty ever assembled for a single POE?

*POE/Technical students will actually aid in constructing the new Fisk organ @ Harvard?

*All faculty, staff, presenters, and chaperones volunteer their time so that these programs may remain affordable to students?

*Student tuition covers just 37% of cost for POE?

What can I do?...

*Block off POE week on your summer calendar, and plan to attend! July 17-22, 2011. There will be five evening concerts and six master classes free and open to the public!

*Encourage prospective students to apply and register!

*Volunteer to help during the week! We will need escorts for students as they move about the city, meal planners, concert ushers, drivers, etc, etc, etc. Contact Cheryl Duerr to volunteer! (clduerr@gmail.com / 617-852-3533)

*Help us to identify high-quality, low-cost (or free!) housing for our distinguished faculty. Housing must be easily accessible to the T (unless chauffer is included!). Do you, or does someone in your parish, have a home in the city that will sit empty that week? Or do you know a hotel manager or B&B owner who might support POE by donating a room?

*Do you know of companies that might support POE by donating or discounting services and goods? Meals, snacks, bus transport, tote bags, t-shirts, binders, etc?

*Do you know a person or company that could make a leadership gift to support POE? Donations, large and small, are accepted online or by check ("AGO Pipe Organ Encounters") to Carl Klein (204 Follen Rd, Lexington, MA 02421).

For more information, contact BostonPOE@gmail.com or visit

Internet Organ Music Audio Broadcasts

Organlive.com is an Internet audio station dedicated to the music of the classical organ. The broadcast is completely free to anyone with a broadband Internet connection. Simply go to www.organlive.com to hear the broadcast through Windows Media Player, WinAmp, iTunes, Quicktime, RealPlayer, or any streaming MP3 player. Additionally the stream may be heard on most mobile devices such as the iPhone or Android based phones.

The new website makes it easier to search the the ever-growing library of organ music, which currently holds over 10,000 tracks from more than 850 albums of music recorded by organists all over the world. Included are pairings of organ and orchestra, solo instruments, choir, or vocal solos.

Listeners may browse the entire library searching by work, composer, organist, album, or organ and request tracks to be played. On Sundays the station features hymns, choral anthems, and music of the church. Monday's playlist consists of music from the 19th and 20th centuries. Wednesdays are all-baroque music, and Fridays feature the best music from our library, as rated by the listeners.

Founded in 1919 in New York City, the Saint Thomas Choir School educates the treble choristers of the Saint Thomas Choir of men and boys. The boys in grades three to eight live, sing, play and learn together during the academic year.

Like every other experience that holds the power to open minds, fire the spirit and transform lives, there's a mix of powerful ingredients at work. The Choir School invites you to visit and learn more about this distinctive educational opportunity.

Tuition is modest and generous scholarships are available. For further information contact Ruth Cobb at 212.247.3311 or rcobb@choirschool.org.
