Boston Ago At "First Night"

The First Night program of the Chapter was among more than 250 performances and events taking place in 30 venues for "First Night 2007". Over one million people attended this year's events in downtown Boston, where unseasonably warm weather made for a very pleasant evening.

Performing on the Aeolian-Skinner organ at Arlington Street Church at 10:00 p.m. were three chapter members, each of whom gave a twenty minute recital for an hour of "Light and Serious Music" for the organ. The program was well attended and all three organists performed wonderfully.

Carl Klein presented works of Saint-Saëns, Dupré, Gigout, Searle Wright, and Widor with clarity and rhythmic drive. Especially enjoyed by the audience was the delightful Carol Prelude on Greensleeves by Wright.

Frances Burmeister then favored us with music of Alain, Vierne, and Dudley Buck. Her renditions of Naiades of Vierne and Concert Variations on The Star-Spangled Banner of Buck showed her virtuosity and fine musicianship.

Concluding the program was Rodger Vine, Artist-in-Residence at Arlington Street Church, and organizer of the AGO First Night organ recitals since 1983. He performed an entertaining arrangement of Christmas carols by Leavitt, Auld Lang Syne as arranged by Lemare and the Prelude and Fugue on the name of Alain of Duruflé. His performance was masterful, bringing to a brilliant close the "AGO First Night Recitals 2007".

First Night began in 1976 in Boston, and since that time numerous other cities have taken up the idea. Arlington Street Church held organ recitals on First Night starting in 1979, when Joyce Painter Rice presented the first one, and later included the Choir in the performances. An Organ Marathon was held on First Night 1981 at Old West Church, observing the 75th anniversary of the Boston Chapter and featuring eight performers. It was co-sponsored by the Guild and First Night, Inc. In addition, other programs that year celebrating the 75th were held at Trinity Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Arlington Street Church. Since that time, the AGO program has been changed to one location and has been held in various places, including St. Paul's Cathedral, Trinity Church, Church of the Covenant and others. It is an opportunity for the AGO to reach a new audience.

Sponsors Needed for Chapter Radio Program

Our radio program Sundays at 7am on WCRB (now 99.5FM) will need sponsorship in the very near future. We are the only program on the station that does not currently pay for the air time. We need to find corporate sponsors, or underwriters, that would pay for the air time and work with us to present their corporate messages. These do not have to be groups associated with music, just ones interested in preserving organ music on the radio by helping us continue our 48 years of broadcasting on WCRB.

If you know of a potential donor or person in a corporation who might be able to persuade his or her group to do this kind of public service, let us know immediately. Please send your suggestions to our Dean, Heinrich Christensen heinrich_christensen@yahoo.com and our radio producer, Martin Steinmetz cmsteinmetz@verizon.net. If you don't have e-mail, please write to us at our home addresses listed in the Chapter directory. If the radio program is to continue as in the past, we must have a potential solution soon.

The McClosky Institute of Voice - Summer 2007 Workshops - 25th Year

ENHANCEMENT OF THE HEALTHY VOICE,

HELP FOR THE TROUBLED VOICE

WHERE SCIENCE MEETS ART:

An interactive, hands-on workshop where you will learn and experience effective techniques to maintain and enhance healthy voices and benefit troubled voices.

Voice teachers, singers, speech and language pathologists, music educators, and choral directors will learn more about:

- Biomechanics of voice - breath, vocal fold function, resonance
- Recognizing voice problems - voice quality, tension, breathing
- How to use these techniques in studios, clinics, classrooms and rehearsals
- Kinesthetic awareness of your own voice

Sub-Dean's Message

No AGO Event? Create Your Own!

With no Chapter events scheduled until the annual meeting on May 20, this is a good time to encourage members to take the initiative to do something different! Check the calendar in this issue and find a concert or other event to attend that is out of your usual pattern. Get together with organist friends and go through music, exchanging ideas for repertoire. Or just play – or improvise – for each other. Call up another member or two and do lunch or dinner.

The AGO, as an institution, has among its purposes, to provide mutual support, inspiration, and education to its members. But these are not, and should not be, limited to official AGO gatherings or business. Members can provide these for each other by getting together informally and socially. And it is a great way to get to know each other better!

-- Lee Ridgway, Sub-Dean

Boston Archdiocesan Choir School Auditions/Applications

The Boston Archdiocesan Choir School, home of The Boston Boy Choir, is accepting applications and arranging auditions for boys now in grade four for September 2007 admission to BACS' day school in Harvard Square, Cambridge. John Dunn, distinguished organist and choral director, is the headmaster of the school and artistic director of the Choir.

BACS offers a full academic curriculum for grades 5-8 plus an outstanding and intense musical training program including voice, piano, recorder and (grades 6-8) handbells. As the Boston Boy Choir, the boys at the school sing for early morning Mass four weekdays and the principal Mass on Sunday each week from September to June, as well as presenting concerts and participating in other musical events.

Recently awarded its Certificate of Accreditation from the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc., BACS was praised as a "tight-knit, exuberant school community, where music is the centerpiece, and joyful learning is evident in each person and in every aspect of the program." BACS is deeply committed to its students and parents are highly invested vital partners in their son's education.

For general information about BACS, please visit the school's website:

www.bostonboychoir.org

For application papers and an audition date, please call BACS at 617-868-8658

Requiescat in Pace

Anne Hawkins, 91, a long-time Boston Chapter member, died January 19 in Northboro, MA. She held many organ/choirmaster positions in the Attleboro area, as well as at the First Baptist Church in Hyannis. She was very interested in promoting young organists, and her family has requested that anybody wishing to honor her memory donate to the "Young Organists Initiative" c/o Dr. Carl Klein, 204 Follen Rd., Lexington, MA 02421. There will be a memorial service in the Spring.

-- Peggy Krewson, Past Dean

Boston Chapter 2007 Competition

The Chapter is pleased to announce that its biennial competition for young organists will be held on Saturday, March 17, 2007. Competitors must be under 23 years of age as of August 1, 2007. Competitors may compete in any chapter level competition in the region of their home or school. Membership in the AGO is not required. Registration forms and repertoire requirements may be found on the National AGO website at www.agohq.org/competitions/index.html

The location of the competition will not be disclosed until registration closes. For more information, contact David Baker, competition coordinator, at dgb137@mac.com

Pipe Organ Encounter

The Springfield Chapter is sponsoring a "full-feature" Pipe Organ Encounter (POE) at Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts. Dates are Sunday, July 22 - Friday, July 27, 2007. A huge array of events is planned, including private lessons with distinguished faculty, seminars, faculty recitals, student recitals, field trips to organs and organ factories, parties, and FUN!

The POE is open to young people ages 13-18 who have intermediate proficiency at the piano and/or organ. Enrollment will be limited to 36 students. There will be two tracks of instruction: one for beginning organists and one for students who have studied organ previously. The local POE committee may choose to grant special consideration on an individual basis for admission of a potential registrant whose age or training differs from the guidelines.

This will be the only POE in the immediate area this year, and it is already almost half-subscribed.

More information is available by reviewing the brochure at www.springfielddago.org. The $375 tuition fee is inclusive of everything (room, food, trips, lessons, events, recitals, etc). Contact E Lary Grossman, Chair & Dean of the Springfield Chapter for more information: elg@bradygrossman.com or 413-247-9426.

Nominating Committee

The 2007 nominating committee is beginning its work. Please submit suggestions for members who can serve as officers or at-large members of the executive committee. If you know of someone, or if you yourself are interested in serving our profession as a member of the Boston Chapter Executive Committee, please send an e-mail to Margaret Angelini (phrygian@aol.com). All suggestions submitted will be given careful consideration.
