Dean's Message

Dear Friends:

Recently, the Executive Committee took a quantum leap forward in favor of requiring members who wish to utilize our chapter Substitute List to have passed the Service Playing Certificate to remain or be on the list. A more detailed letter to this effect has been sent to those registered on the list.

After careful consideration and discussion by the Executive Committee the following points were made.

1. That being on our substitute list, you serve as a representative of the Guild.
2. Since we recommend certain fees for services, it is reasonable for churches to expect a certain level of competence from our members
3. If churches have had unsatisfactory experiences with Guild members, they are far less likely to honor our suggested salary guidelines and standards.
4. One purpose of the Guild and the Certification process is to raise standards of playing amongst our colleagues.

You will be pleased to know that (Uncle) Max Miller and Glenn Goda will be offering classes to anyone who wishes to prepare for this exam. Contact Glenn at 617-445-2600, x132 to express your interest in participating in the process.

Anyone wishing to be on the Substitute List after May 1, 2004 will be required to have passed the SPC, CAGO, AAGO or FAGO exams – please note that this does not include ChM.

Please offer your support to those entering this process.

-- Laurence Carson, Dean

Organ Library News

All the Stops at The Organ Library

Author and assistant managing editor of the New York Times Craig Whitney will visit the Organ Library in January to discuss his recent book, All the Stops. This very readable treatment of the careers of leading figures of the organ world in the last half of the twentieth century (E. Power Biggs, Virgil Fox, G. Donald Harrison) was reviewed in the September Newsletter. Some of the research for the book was done at the Library. Save the date—Monday, January 26—and bring music you would like to donate to the Library's collection (maybe some Christmas music you don't intend playing again?).

The Organ Library – New Opening Hours

The Organ Library has increased its hours of service. In addition to the usual Monday opening (10-4), the Library will also be staffed on Thursday afternoon (1-4) and Friday (10-4). Discover unusual organ works, use the archives, or peruse the hundreds of items of used music for sale.

Notes from C. B. Fisk

Finally, Major American Organ in Europe

The Cathedral of Lausanne, Switzerland, will present inaugural concerts on its new organ by C. B. Fisk, Opus 120.

In the early part of the 20th century, hundreds of North American theatre and residence organs made their way to Europe, mostly made by Wurlitzer and Aeolian, respectively. Church organs have been exported at a much smaller rate, perhaps just a dozen or so from 1878 on. Fisk's "Magnum Opus" installation, comprised of 5 manuals, 124 ranks and 6,737 pipes, is the largest American contribution to Europe and makes a small inroad in reversing the tide of trade.

For recital information, specification and more photos, www.cbfish.com.

Open House

On Saturday November 1 from 2-6 pm, Fisk will host an Open House for a new 2 manual, 26 stop organ for Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, Shoreview MN. The shop is located at 18 Kondelin Rd, Gloucester MA. Call 978-283-1909 for further information. The event is free and the site is handicapped accessible

Requiescant in Pace

Henry Karl Baker

Boston Chapter member Henry Karl Baker, known to many organists internationally as the founder of the Organ Literature Foundation, died on September 30, at the age of 71.

Mr. Baker was born in Nashua, NH. He received his BS in Music Education from the University of New Hampshire, Masters of Music degree from The New England Conservatory of Music and his post-graduate and doctoral work at Boston University. In 1953, he received a scholarship for the carillon school in Mechelen, Belgium and was appointed University Carillonneur at the University of New Hampshire at the end of his sophomore year.

His 32 years of teaching included the public schools of Calais and Gardiner, Maine; Chelmsford, Baldwinville and 21 years in Sharon, Massachusetts, as well as the University of Maine at Ft Kent. Several of his former students became professional teachers and performers. He retired from teaching in 1988.

In 1950 he founded and remained the president of The Organ Literature Foundation, which became the largest clearinghouse of organ books and recordings in the world. Mr. Baker published 15 books on organ history and construction and was an international authority on organ literature. His advice regarding recorded organ repertoire and literature was eagerly sought by organ departments of universities and colleges both in this country and in Europe. In his retirement years, he developed a discography of organ compositions, which included thousands of organ compositions recorded on compact discs. He counted among his circle of friends a great many international concert organists and organ builders.

Mr. Baker was organist and choir director of Sacred Heart Church in Weymouth Landing for the past 31 years. In his retirement years, Mr. Baker frequently substituted in area churches.

Catharine Crozier

Legendary organ performance artist and teacher Catharine Crozier died on September 19, following a stroke. Her successful career began before WWII and spanned decades and continents. Crozier taught at Eastman School of Music, Rochester, New York, and later at Rollins College. Recently a Crozier Master Class was featured in the "Master Teacher" series published in VHS and DVD by the American Guild of Organists. In retirement Catharine resided in Portland, Oregon, where she was named Artist in Residence at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral.

John Rutter in Boston

Mr. Rutter will conduct the Parish and Trinity Choirs, with Soloists and Orchestra, in an All Saints concert of his own compositions, including Requiem and Feel The Spirit, A Cycle of Spirituals.

Winter is Coming!

Remember that dry heat is good neither for leather nor wood in organs. Now is the time to make sure your humidification systems are in working order. Any device that evaporates water will collect scale and crud over time. If you have no humidification, and your heat is very dry, perhaps you should consider installing such a system.

Executive Committee Meeting Minutes Highlights

15 September 2003, 7 p.m.

Present: Carson, Krasinski, Bishop, Bruns, Rice, Willie, Humphreville, Goda, Christensen, Hughes, Ridgway, Gray, Olbash, Angelini, Michael S. Murray, Wunsch, Klein, Richard Clark.

Treasurer's Report, Carl Klein:

- .. Donations have gone fairly well this year.

Membership, Robert Humphreville:

- .. Lost 35 regular members since 2001, hoping to renew regular memberships.
- .. Number of Senior members increased since 2001

Committee Reports:

A) Broadcasts: Martin Steinmetz:

- Rob Stuart Vale is having surgery. He and Martin have already recorded all programs through the rest of the year.

B) Education and Examinations, Glenn Goda:

A few significant complaints have been made concerning the quality of substitute organists on the official Boston Chapter AGO Substitute list. Churches might assume that the Boston AGO has given its stamp of approval to all those on the list. Much discussion of how to handle this problem

Recommendation made that in order to be on the substitute list, one must pass at minimum, the Service Playing exam. CAGO and higher, but not including Choir Master, is acceptable. Degrees are not acceptable. All exams are judged by the National AGO which lends objectivity. Glenn Goda offers Mission Church as a place to take the exams.

MOTION: (By next year) In order to be included on the substitute list one must pass at minimum, the Service Playing exam. The exam must be taken by May 1, 2004. C.A.G.O. and higher, but not including Choir Master, is acceptable.

Motion Passed

C) First Night, Rodger Vine:

- .. 1st Night returns to Trinity Church
- .. There will be a minimum program of one 45 minute set among 3 performers.
- .. Program not set yet
- .. In the past the AGO paid ½ the artists' fees, 1st Night paying the other ½. Last year, 1st Night paid the entire fee. Hopefully, this trend will continue.
- .. Construction at Trinity should not be an issue at night. Hopefully, there will be no banging in the basement during the concert.

D) Membership, (Rob Humphreville):

- .. Membership chair should do whatever it can to promote membership. A grand plan is not yet in place.

- .. Plan to call about 70 members who have not renewed.
- .. Recommendation to increase new regular membership by at least 10% every year in order to counteract attrition of older members, those moving/leaving, etc.

E) Professional Development, Peter Krasinski:

- .. Put out fires and prevent them from happening.
- .. Peter to form committee

F) Programs, Margaret Angelini:

- .. Opening Service discussed
- .. 2/2/04: Musician Clergy Dinner
- .. Organ Crawl
- .. Jean-Pierre Leguay to perform at Old West
- .. May 1st Annual Meeting

G) Yearbook, Cheryl Van Ornam:

- .. Cheryl Van Ornam moved to Richmond, VA. Many Thanks!!!
- .. Will need new person to head up the yearbook
- .. Current yearbooks should have arrived

H) YOI, Mary Sue Willie and Stuart Foster:

- .. Pedals Pipes and Pizza, November 8, 2003 at Christ Church & Trinity Concord.
- .. Received a $3,000 gift from the Universal Unitarian Church of Greater Lynn.
- .. Advertisement in yearbook has some incorrect information.

Unfinished Business:

Bid for 2010 National Convention is still unresolved. It is between Boston and Washington DC. We should hear a final decision in approximately one month.

New Business:

Recommendation to publish recommended salary and pay scales for the Boston Chapter. Compensation has not been reviewed in several years. National scale is out of date and not appropriate for this area. Professional Development will handle this.

Initial discussion of supporting or backing touring organists from other countries. Possibility of developing a "clearing house" of performing venues, places to stay, etc. Many of these performers are probably very good, but are looking to just cover basic costs—a challenge in Boston, but not large scale fees. How to accomplish this cultural exchange? Food for thought...

Symphony Hall organ restoration: Rededication by Jim Christie and BSO in Fall of 2004. The AGO used to sponsor Sunday afternoon organ recitals at Symphony Hall. Current outrageous rental fees for the Hall likely to make this impossible in the future unless there is some huge donation. Perhaps support a program only once a year.

Submitted by Richard Clark, Recording Secretary, and summarized by the editor. See Richard for the the full minutes.

“Tuesdays with Sebastian”

Two of Boston's most distinguished early keyboard specialists -- Christa Rakich and Peter Sykes - are collaborating in an exciting new series of concerts spanning the complete keyboard music of Johann Sebastian Bach. In 34 concerts over a two year period, Peter and Christa will perform on organ, harpsichord and clavichord to vividly bring to life the brilliant genius of the keyboard's greatest master. The concerts began in October and will continue in two-week intervals, alternating location between Old West and St. Paul's Church in Brookline. The opportunity to hear this repertoire in these intimate settings is unsurpassed on any concert series in Boston or beyond.

Proceeds from the suggested donation of $10 for each concert will be used to support several Boston-area charities.

For further information, call 617-661-0570 or visit with Sebastian on the web:
