Chapter Programs

Clergy/Musician Dinner
Tuesday, October 23, 6:00 p.m.
Church of the Redeemer
379 Hammond Street
Chestnut Hill

“It will remain bad theology so long as the theologian and the artist refuse to communicate with one another.” These words of the late Erik Routley are at the heart of forming good clergy-musician relationships in the 21st century. Have you communicated with your clergy and made plans to attend the clergy/musician dinner on Tuesday, October 23rd?

Dr. Karen Westerfield Tucker, Professor of Worship at Boston University, will be our guest speaker. As both pastor and musician, she well knows the joys and challenges of planning and leading worship and will share insights and offer some provocative thoughts in our time together. Dr. Tucker regards highly the work of Paul Westermeyer, author of The Church Musician (Augsburg Fortress, 1997), in which he emphasizes his basic premise that, “The church musician is part of a community.”

Don't miss this opportunity to be in community with musicians and clergy from the Boston area over dinner, followed by a brief program of music (featuring the church's Noack organ) and our speaker's words of wisdom. Get your reservation form in the mail without delay. It promises to be an occasion that will generate new ideas and possibilities for everyone!

For 15 years, Karen Westerfield Tucker served as Professor of Liturgy at Duke University, prior to coming to the Boston University School of Theology as Professor of Worship. Editor of The Oxford History of Christian Worship, she is currently completing Worthy Anthems Raise: Hymnals in Protestant Faith and Practice. As chair of the Worship and Liturgy Committee of the World Methodist Council, and as a recent Luce Fellow studying the theological and cultural dynamics of hymnals, Dr. Tucker offers much to clergy and musicians that will enrich their unique vocations and their collaborative work.

Reservation deadline is October 12!

Directions: Hammond Street runs between Route 9 (on the southerly side) and Beacon St. (on the northerly side); the church is at Reservoir Avenue. Parking behind church. By T: Green Line D train to Chestnut Hill stop. Walk right on Hammond; church will be on left. ## An Open Letter to Boston Chapter Members

Dear AGO friends,

Perhaps you remember the first time you were thrilled by organ music, or touched an instrument. This is the kind of excitement we hope to generate at our Pedals, Pipes and Pizza on Saturday, October 27th. We begin at First Church Congregational, 11 Garden Street, at 10 AM to hear and play the tracker action Frobenius and then move down the street to Christ Church, Zero Garden Street, to hear and play the electric-pneumatic action Schoenstein installed last year. After that we'll enjoy pizza and share our stories of wonderful experiences pulling out all the stops!

We urge you to tell all interested young people about this opportunity. Your youth choir members, piano and/or organ students and those who are avid listeners will be most welcome to come and have a 'hands-on' experience on two different but beautiful instruments.

This event is a 'feeder' to our Scholarship Auditions to be held on January 26 at St. Paul Church (site of the Boston Archdiocesan Choir School) in Cambridge. That audition is limited to people 12 to 18 years of age or in Grades 6 through 12. The Scholarships cover 10 lessons, membership in the Guild for 18 months and a gift certificate for new music. However, the Pedals, Pipes and Pizza are open to all ages - we even had an enthusiastic 3 year old a few years ago who burst through the church door asking "Where's the organ?"

Do encourage young people and their parents or teachers to join us. Both venues are just a short walk from the Harvard Square "T" stop. We look forward to seeing you there. For further information, please call Mary Sue Willie: (978) 369-2363 or e-mail her at cvmwillie@comcast.net.

Note that effective this season, electronic Newsletters are being e-mailed to those members who indicated such on their renewal forms. They will no longer receive paper copies.

It is not too late to sign up for this service, just drop Tim Hughes an e-mail.

Advertising Space Available

The Newsletter back page ad space (half-page) is still available for January, February, April, and June ($85). Please contact the Editor to reserve the space.

Quarter-page inside ads are always available for $25 each, without reservation.

Advertising deadline is Friday of the first week of the preceding month.
