INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS & RECITAL

Harry Huff and youngsters played beautifully at Harvard Memorial Church, Cambridge, Sunday afternoon, September 29, for our annual installation of officers. Our Chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Carl Daw, officiated, and Harry led the hymns on the E. M. Skinner organ and did music of Calvin Hampton as prelude and postlude.

Immediately following the service, a festive recital was played on the C. B. Fisk organ by young artists Karen Christianson, Christian Haigh (both in Harvard Class of 2017), and Alex Pattavina (Second Prize winner of the Albert Schweitzer Organ Competition and the AGO/Quimby Competition). They did a bang-up good job on music by Bach, Cooman, Duruflé, Langlais, Wammes, and Widor, and we oldsters felt the heat!
