

BOSTON PIPINGS

news and notes for members of Boston Chapter AGO

Convention rate for BAGO members available now:

BAGO members who register early for the AGO 2014 National Convention get a reduced rate of $400 for regular members/spouses/partners and $370 for senior members (over 65)/spouses/partners. The Steering Committee offers the reduced amount to encourage chapter members to attend and to volunteer for the many tasks needed during the Convention, June 23-27.

The Boston Chapter rate is both online, <http://www.regonline.com/agoboston2014>, and on the registration form in The American Organist. It's lower in the form than the initial registration fees, so please look for it!

We look forward to greeting you at the Convention preview dinner at Christ Church, Cambridge, Monday, November 4, 6:30 p.m., $10. RVSP dean Dan McKinley by Thursday, October 31: dan.mckinley@ctr-anglican.org; 812-320-0882.

SCHOENSTEIN COMPETITION IN HYMN PLAYING

To promote excellence in hymn playing, the 2014 Schoenstein Competition in Hymn Playing has been announced to coincide with the release of the book Hymn Playing: A Modern Colloquium by Stuart Forster, MorningStar Music Publishers.

Organists born on or after March 20, 1981, are invited to apply. The application should include live recordings of the applicant playing hymns with a congregation singing, and must be received by March 20, 2014.

The final round will occur at Christ Church, Cambridge, 4:00 p.m., Sunday, June 22, 2014, the day before the AGO National Convention in Boston. The public is invited to sing in the congregation during the final round. Finalists will play the 2006 III/43 Schoenstein organ.

First prize: $3000. Second prize: $1000. Rules and Application Forms: www.hymnplayingcompetition.org or from the organizer, Dr. Stuart Forster, stuartforster@aya.yale.edu.
