Chapter Programs Update

Monday, May 19, 2003 at 6:30pm

Annual Meeting with Past Deans' Recital
Wellesley Hills Congregational Church
Annual Meeting - 6:30pm Sharp!
Past Deans' Recital - 7:00pm Sharp!
Dinner Afterwards

We will end our program year with our Annual Meeting, and this year we will hear several of our past deans hold forth on the newly renovated Schantz organ at the Wellesley Hills Congregational Church. The performers for the evening will be Max Miller, Lois Regestein, Jim Hejduk, Nancy Granert, Barbara Owen, Martin Steinmetz, Victoria Wagner, and David Carrier. The meal after the recital will be catered. Directions to the church and instructions for placing your reservation will be in next month's Newsletter.

If you already have next year's calendar, then set aside these dates for the 2003-04 chapter program season:

Monday, Sept. 22 - Opening Service

Wednesday, Dec. 31 - First Night

Monday, Feb. 2, 2004 - Musician/ Clergy Dinner

Monday, April 19, 2004 - Patriots' Day Organ Crawl

Monday, May 17, 2004 - Annual Meeting

We are also planning a children's choir event for sometime in October, and hope to present a full-length organ recital in the early spring. There will be more details about all these events in future Newsletters.

Membership Renewal

Membership renewal notices for the 2003-04 year will be mailed this month. (The AGO year runs from July 1, 2003 to June 30, 2004.) Your renewal form and check MUST be received back by July 1 to ensure that you're included in the Chapter yearbook. After that date, no guarantee!

AGO/Quimby 2003 Competition for Young Organists

The 2003 Boston Chapter/Quimby competition for Young Organists was held Saturday, February 22, at St. Ignatius Church, Chestnut Hill. Two competitors played works by J. S. Bach, Franck, Dupré, and the required piece, Variations on Wondrous Love, by Barber, plus a hymn.

First place was awarded to Anne Kirk, who will represent our Chapter at the Regional, this summer. Anne is a senior at Brown University and a student of Mark Steinbach.

Second prize was awarded to Jeffrey Wood, the current organ scholar at Holy Cross College, Worcester, and a student of James David Christie.

Our distinguished judges were Christa Rakich, Lois Regestein, and Peter Sykes.

We appreciate the time, energy, and interest of all involved.

Timothy Zimmerman,
Chapter Coordinator of Competitions.

2003 REGION I Convention

North Falmouth, Cape Cod, June 29 through July 2

Registrations are arriving steadily and yours should be sent soon if you want the best chance for workshop preferences. Also note there is a "cap" of 280 attendees that may be reached sooner rather than later. We also suggest you take advantage of the meal and transportation packages which are very good deals.

If you "misplaced" your registration form (sent to every Region I member in January), another detailed description of the offerings appears in the April issue of The American Organist. In any case, the following is a very brief summary of what is in store:

- Artists: Martin Jean, Joan Lippincott, Thomas Murray, Christa Rakich, Peter Krasinski
- Choral Programs: The Chatham Chorale, Gloriam Dei Cantares, and the Woodland Scholars.
- New England Heritage Hymn Festival.
- Organs: Skinner, Sipe, Hook & Hastings, and Wurlitzer.
- Commissioned Works: Richard Busch, Ann MacDonald Diers, Robert Edward Smith, James Woodman
- Workshops: J.S. Bach, Small Organs with Instruments, Choral Techniques, Handling the Aging Voice, Current Hymnody, Copyright Law/Internet, Registrations & Repertoire for Small Organs, Anthem Reading Sessions, Acoustics, Children's Choirs, Gregorian Chant, MIDI, Professional Concerns, Hook & Hastings Organs, Handbells.
- Master Classes: Joan Lippincott, Thomas Murray, Martin Jean

Hymn Tune Variations

This year DARCEY PRESS plans to publish a collection of Hymn Tune Variations. The parameters are: public domain tune (no copyright problems), easy to moderate level of difficulty, variation format

If Boston Chapter members have, or know of, any manuscripts which the composers would like to have considered for inclusion in this book, DARCEY PRESS would be interested in seeing them.

Organ Library Notes

SEND IN THE STUDENTS!

We always like to see students walk in the door. Mostly they're from B.U. or New England Conservatory, although we had a couple from M.I.T. not long ago. Being scientific types, they were studying acoustics, not music, but yes, we had some of the things they were looking for.

But do all of the schools around here know about us? If you teach in one, tell your students. If you're a student, tell the other students. We'd even be happy to arrange a special visit for a group of students, especially if they're from out of town. Last year we were visited by a group from the University of Evansville, Indiana, in the Hub for a few days of "organ crawling" with their teacher.

One thing student visitors invariably like is our ever-changing "flea market" of duplicate music and books, all at "starving student" prices. They rarely leave empty-handed, and the income helps us to buy more books and music. Of course, you don't have to be a student to avail yourself of this little perk; you don't even have to be starving. Come visit us in Room 2B at 745 Comm. Ave. And bring a student.

EMCATOS Website

Len Beyersdorfer of the Worcester/Boston Chapters informs us he is Vice President of the Eastern Massachusetts Chapter of the American Theatre Organ Society (EMCATOS).

Their website is at www.emcatos.com, and while focused on the theatre pipe organ tradition, it includes classical organ recital notices as well as announcements of our theatre organ concerts and related events.
