Chapter Programs

Looking Ahead: International Year of the Organ

With no Chapter program scheduled for November, and the next Chapter event being the First Night concerts on New Year's Eve, this seems like a good time to alert our members to an ambitious project being spearheaded by the national AGO: the International Year of the Organ (IYO), running from July 2008 to June 2009.

You may have read about this in the August 2007 TAO, in an article by AGO Vice-President Peggy Evans, and you may have seen the insert in the October TAO, between pages 64 and 65. In case you did not, briefly:

The International Year of the Organ is to be a time for celebrating and taking pride in our chosen instrument. The year of festivities will be inaugurated with special events at the National Convention of the AGO in Minneapolis in June of 2008, and will conclude with the AGO Regional Conventions in the summer of 2009. The highlight of the year will be an Organ Spectacular – billed as the world's largest organ concert – on October 19, 2008. (Many of you may recall a similar event a few years ago, which generated quite a bit of publicity for the organ and its music.)

Here is the challenge to the Boston AGO – and that means to all of you members. You can bet your Bombarde, or your Bourdon, that lots of smaller AGO chapters out there, with far fewer members and resources than Boston's, are going to be going all out for the IYO. Chapters and their individual members will be planning all manner of events, concerts, and “happenings” to bring the organ and its music to their churches, schools, concert-goers, and people in the street. Will Boston be doing the same?

It is not too early to start thinking about what we can do as a chapter and as individuals in our own communities to be a part of the IYO. The events don't have to be big, grand spectacles. Even small, very local programs – well-thought out and publicized – can be highly effective.

Boston will host the AGO Regional I & II convention in June 2009, but that is just one event, targeted primarily to AGO members. Planning for the Boston chapter's regular program season for 2008-2009 will be underway in the next few months, so send in your thoughts and suggestions for Chapter events. And as plans and schedules for your own programs are made, let us know about them, so that they can be incorporated into publicity materials that the Chapter will produce throughout the IYO.

-- Lee Ridgway, Sub-Dean

Music From the Opening Program

If you were not at the Chapter's opening program and installation of officers, you missed a wonderful evening of very varied music with various instruments and organ. Below are the pieces that were performed. Many, many thanks to our members, and guests, who performed!

Jehan Alain:

Trois Mouvements pour Flûte et Orgue

Naji Hakim:

Capriccio for Violin and Organ

Daniel Pinkham

Aurora for Clarinet and Organ

Humoresques for Bassoon and Organ

Partita for Guitar and Organ Manuals

Georg Philipp Telemann:

Sonata in F Minor for Bassoon and Continuo

Dean's Message

Each One Reach One – Membership Recruitment Season

One of the things that popped up during our discussions in connection with planning for our 2009 Regional Convention in Boston was the need to reach our full chapter membership potential. The more members we have, the more we have to build on to put on a successful and well attended convention.

In my experience over these last few years being involved in Guild work, personal invitation and encouragement is the most effective way to convince colleagues and friends to join the Guild. So I urge you to think about folks (colleagues in neighboring churches, choir members, concert attendees, organ aficionados) in your personal surroundings who should be in the Guild. Remember that there are no specific requirements of keyboard skills or the like; anybody who is a fan of organ or choral music is welcome to join our ranks. At just over $80 for a year, membership is a bargain; the included subscription to The American Organist and access to our marvelous newsletter and concert calendar ought to be enough to convince just about anybody to write that check right away. Pick up the phone and call them today!

Remember that we also welcome Chapter friends and dual members if you come up with folks who are already in another chapter but would like to keep tabs on what's going on in Boston as well as their home town.

Nationally, the Guild is in its third and final year of a membership campaign, and there is even a competition going on. The top five recruiters nationally will each be awarded a complimentary registration to the 2008 National Convention in Minneapolis, and $150 cash. Call the national office 212-970-2310 or go to www.agohq.org to obtain forms to enter the competition.

If you have lots of good ideas for new member recruitment, but find that you are too shy or too busy to call up and do the actual recruiting yourself, you will be happy to learn that the Chapter is planning a mailing to prospective members in the spring. So you can take the easy way out and send names and mailing addresses of your candidates directly to Cheryl van Ornam (a proud dual Chapter member in Richmond and Boston!) at ago_stoplist_cvo@yahoo.com

Go forth, recruit, and make us plentiful... --Heinrich

Anthony Cirella Retirement

Anthony (Tony) Cirella, well known blind organist and composer in the Boston area, is retiring after 64 years as a professional organist. Anthony holds BM and MM degrees from the New England Conservatory of Music and AAGO and FAGO certificates from the American Guild of Organists. He has had several sacred masses and motets published. Anthony has faithfully served in many parishes in the area, most recently at St. Philip Neri in Waban. His favorite experience was singing and directing his choir combined with St. Paul (Wellesley) choir directed by his wife in St. Peter's at the Vatican in Rome. Congratulations for a job well done.

Boston 2009: "The Landmarks Convention"

Plans are well underway for the dual Regional Convention (Regions I and II combined), to be held in Boston, July 1-4, 2009. The convention theme celebrates not only Boston's landmarks of American history, but also its organ landmarks: great instruments, builders, performers, churches, and concert halls.

The steering committee, chaired by Michael Kleinschmidt, has been meeting regularly since last winter. The program committee has been lining up artists and venues. Program details will be publicized when headquarters puts its stamp of approval on the package.

The convention hotel will be the Back Bay Hilton, and an excellent rate has been secured. A "green" convention is envisioned, with minimal use of buses and with events located within walking distance of the Hilton and/or close to T stops.

What can you do now? (1) Mark the dates on your calendar. (2) Consider volunteering your time and skills. (3) Register.

Register? Already? Yes! Available right now is a super-early, super-low registration fee of $250. There will never be a lower rate! There's no official registration form yet. Just send a note and a check to the convention treasurer, Joel Davidson, P.O. Box 14, Wollaston, MA 02170. He'll record it and know that you have pre-paid when it comes time to submit registration materials. Make checks payable to "Boston Chapter, AGO."

In offering advance registration at a very low price, the steering committee seeks, early on, to secure the support and participation of our own Chapter membership.

Make plans to retreat, rejuvenate, and socialize with your Chapter colleagues. Sign up now for Boston 2009: The Landmarks Convention.

Sing in Italy?

LAST CALL for Ars et Amici music trip to Naples, Sorrento & Rome!

Sheila Beardslee, director of Ars et Amici, is organizing her 9th trip to Italy for singers and friends, visiting Naples and Rome in February 2008.

DATES: Leave US 13 February 2008; return 25 February

COSTS: $1500 (+ airfare -- see below)

We will sing Masses in churches in Naples and Rome. The repertoire includes works of Palestrina, Marenzio, Gesualdo, Alessandro Scarlatti, and others for vocal ensemble; we also have a consort of recorders.

Your trip includes double room/private bath/breakfast at 3-star hotels (singles available at a surcharge), private coach/driver; 3-4 half-day excursions, guides at excursion sites, tour manager. You pay for your own lunches, dinners, tips for hotel, guides, driver/TM.

Openings in all voice sections; friends and family over 21 welcomed to join us too! Rehearsals take place in the greater Boston area.

Please contact Sheila Beardslee Bosworth:

(sheilabb@earthlink.net) for more information.
