2 pm Service of Lessons and Carols – Free

By now you will have received a flyer and a registration form for this day-long event, and I hope that you are seriously considering attending. Whether you have one small children's choir, a large graded program, or even if you've never led one and would like to find out where to start, there will be something here for you. The day will end with a 2 pm service of lessons and carols, conducted by Daniel Moriarty and performed by the participating children's choirs.

Send your AGO news & notices to:

NB: If you would like your children's choir to sing as a part of this event, call me NOW! You will need to order the music and make sure that your choir is prepared to sing.

Future Events:

Wednesday, December 31

First Night Organ Recitals

The First Night Committee has invited the Boston Chapter to participate in the city's First Night festivities, and we return to Trinity Church in Copley Square after our brief visit to the Church of the Covenant. More information will be available in future newsletters.

Worcester AGO Web Site

The Worcester Chapter, Marjorie Ness, Dean, has announced that their website is at www.worcesterago.org

Boston Chapter members are invited to visit, no passwords are necessary.

"Fridays on the Square"

While Trinity Church in Boston is under renovation and restoration, its well-established Friday lunchtime concert series has been moved diagonally across Copley Square to Old South Church. The series is sponsored jointly by both churches. The Calendar section lists the specific artist each Friday.

Treble Chorus of New England

The Treble Chorus of New England, youth choirs in residence at Merrimack College, are holding auditions for their 2003-2004 season. The Treble Chorus is a youth choral program where children ages 5 - 18 receive professional choral training designed to develop stage presence, confidence, and an understanding of classical music. With five choirs and over 100 members the Treble Chorus offers concerts for a variety of audiences throughout the region. For more information and audition times call 978-837-5461.

Dean's Message

By now, you have received your 2003-2004 Membership Yearbook. If I do say so myself, it looks stunning!!

There are many to thank for making the yearbook such a success, too many to list here. However, I would be remiss if I did not take this opportunity to thank Cheryl Van Ornam, the Yearbook Editor, for the magnificent job she has done, for the many hours she has put into this project and for the wonderful results she has brought forth. Unfortunately, with this edition we have to sadly say goodbye to Cheryl as she and her family have relocated to Virginia. Cheryl, you're terrific!! We're all going to miss that red hat!!

Many have asked about our chapter website. If you have not visited it, please do at www.bostonago.com. One of the things which we are planning very, very soon is the replacement of the hard copy newsletter with an on line version. Some snags are still being worked out and when the time comes, we will make the transition as smooth as possible for everyone.

Don't forget to mark your calendar with our upcoming events. All are welcome.

Sincerely,

Laurence Carson, Dean

Episcopal Divinity School Organ

The Bishop Organ Company has renovated the 1956 III/32 Holtkamp Organ at the Episcopal Divinity School on Brattle Street in Cambridge, replacing leather pouches in the Swell and Positiv Pitman windchests, installing a new electric-solonoid stop-action for the Great (replacing the original electro-pneumatic action), and installing a solid-state relay and combination action. Reservoirs have been releathered, pipes have been cleaned, and the six reeds have new tongues.

The instrument is an excellent example of Holtkamp's then-revolutionary concepts of classic stoplists and exposed pipework. The rededication recital will be performed by Heinrich Christensen on Thursday, October 23 at 7:30 pm. Please see the Calendar for details.

Executive Committee Meetings

Monday evenings 7-9 pm, AGO Organ Library, Boston University School of Theology, Room 2B, 745 Commonwealth Ave, Boston. Note New Location.

Executive committee meetings are open to all chapter members.

Organ Library News*The ABC's of the Organ Library

Data entry for Webcatalog of the Organ Library has made substantial progress. When finally completed, it will permit Internet searches of the Library's holdings based on composer, hymn tune, date of publication, etc. By the middle of September the works of all composers whose names begin with A, B, and C had been entered into the database. (If that doesn't sound impressive, consider that there were 500 items for Bach alone!) The process has also revealed many gaps in the Library's collection.

Now would be a good time for Chapter members to look through the ABC's (or more) in their personal collections for organ music that could be donated to the Organ Library. Works, many of them lesser known, from the early part of the twentieth century are particularly desirable. Is there some old music at your church that runs the risk of being discarded? The Organ Library will preserve it for future generations. Please contact the Library (orglib@bu.edu), the Librarian (Barbara Owen) or the chairman of the Library Committee (Joseph Dyer) for further information.
