Pedals, Pipes and Pizza in Harvard Square!

Join us at 10 am on Saturday, October 24 in First Church Congregational (11 Garden St) for an introduction to the organs, led by Peter Sykes. Following the demonstration at First Church we will walk back toward the Square to Christ Church (Zero Garden St) where Stuart Forster will show a contrasting style of pipe organ. We top off the day with a pizza lunch at Christ Church. This event, sponsored by the Chapter, is designed to introduce young people to the King of Instruments. Those who wish will have an opportunity to play the instruments and will hear about scholarship opportunities offered by the Young Organists Initiative. Master Class with Yuko Hayashi

Tuesday, October 20, 7:30 pm

Memorial Church, Harvard University, Cambridge

The Chapter's October event is a public master class with legendary teacher Yuko Hayashi, in celebration of her eightieth birthday!

As an organ professor at the New England Conservatory for more than 40 years, Ms. Hayashi taught and influenced an entire generation of American organists. Since her retirement from NEC in 2001, she has continued her role as Director of Music at Old West Church, Boston, and as the Executive/Artistic Director of the Old West Organ Society. Renowned as a specialist in historical performance of many styles, Ms. Hayashi was chosen as a winner of the Arion Award by the Cambridge Society for Early Music in 1995.

All are welcome to attend this special class and learn from Ms. Hayashi's decades of experience and wealth of knowledge! Any Boston AGO member wishing to play for Ms. Hayashi on this occasion should contact Chris Lane at Harvard Memorial Church as soon as possible. Ms. Hayashi's specialties coincide nicely with the strengths of C.B. Fisk, Op. 46 at Harvard: the music of J.S. Bach and other German composers of the late 17th, 18th, and early 19th centuries. Participants are requested to choose their repertoire accordingly and will be provided practice time.

For more information, or to request the opportunity to play in the class, please contact Chris Lane at christian_lane@harvard.edu or 617-495-8597.

A second master class with Ms. Hayashi, focusing on French repertoire, will take place on February 19 at Old West Church. Look for details in the coming months!

2010 Children's Choir Festival

The Third Annual Children's Choir Festival of the Southeastern New England Chapter of Choristers Guild will be held on Saturday, March 20, 2010, at Sacred Heart Church in Quincy, Massachusetts.

Further Information will appear next month.

Dean's Message

Looking Out for Ourselves

The beginning of a new season is a good time to remind our members with jobs in churches or synagogues to take steps which might be termed "looking out for ourselves." These are things which we may have done conscientiously when beginning a new position, but after several years when all seemed to be going well, have let slide: not a good idea. Here are two crucial items to check for your situation.

Contract/Letter of Agreement

You do have one of these, don't you? This is a crucial document! Even if in a church which, as official policy, does not "do such things" or "doesn't need it because full control is given to the head clergy," to not have in writing the terms of your employment is just bad professional practice, both on the institution's part, and on the employee's part.

If you have a contract or agreement, pull it out to review it and see if it needs updating. This is the time of year when churches begin planning for the next year, so this is the best time to get yourself involved in the process. If you don't have a contract or agreement, start talking to those in your church who would be responsible for such.

Regular Meetings

You do meet regularly (at least more than once or twice a year!) with your head clergy person or immediate supervisor, don't you? It could be regular staff meetings or it could be just you and the person who plan the music. Whomever, meet! Not only should these meetings be about planning future music, but they are appropriate times to "check in" on any issues or problems which may be apparent. Better and easier to address issues early on, rather than leave them unacknowledged to grow into larger issues, less easily addressed later.

These are just two key aspects of "professional practices" which need constant attention to assure and insure that our employment is satisfactory for both ourself and our employer. Charlene Higbe and the Chapter's professional development committee will be expanding on these themes in future newsletters and activities. You can also find copious information about professional development on the national AGO website: start at www.agohq.org/profession/ then look at the list of pages and documents on the right.

Carnegie Hall Opportunity for Young Singers

The Young Opera Company of New England and the Parish of Christ Church, Andover, are proud to announce that local conductor Marie Stultz has been invited by MidAmerica Productions to direct an auditioned treble ensemble of young singers for their 2009-2010 season at Carnegie Hall in New York City. The opera company along with the Young Classical Singers of New England will join choirs throughout the country to sing a concert of American music with full orchestra on Sunday, May 30, 2010, at 2:00 pm.

Barbara Bruns, Minister of Music at Christ Church, Andover, has joined forces with Stultz in expanding the company's choral program for treble voices of both boys and girls, ages 12-18. Young singers throughout the greater Boston area are invited to audition to be included in this unique concert entitled America Sings. Church choir directors working with young singers are encouraged to take advantage of this rare opportunity and recommend two or three of your finest singers to audition.

Auditions for this newly formed choir will be held BY APPOINTMENT ONLY at Christ Church, 25 Central Street, Andover through the first week of October. To arrange an audition time, call 978-664-4705. There will be an audition fee of $15. Up to 60 young singers, both girls and boys with unchanged voices, will be accepted.

Rehearsals will be from 5:30-6:30 pm on Tuesdays at Christ Church, Andover, beginning Tuesday, October 6 and continuing through May, with time off in December and January. An alternate rehearsal time is Monday evenings from 7:30-8:30 pm at the Collins Center in Andover.

MidAmerica Productions was founded by Peter Tiboris in 1983 and has staged hundreds of concerts over the past several decades. Quoting the New York Times, "To the old question of how to get to Carnegie Hall, there's a new answer: 'Call Peter Tiboris.'"

More information on Carnegie Hall and MidAmerica productions can be found on line at www.midamericaproductions.com and information on the opera company can be found at www.youngoperacompany.org.
