Mini-Convention

Columbus Day, Monday, October 10, 2011

Sponsored by BOSTON CHAPTER, AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

Columbus Day Mini-Convention will provide an opportunity for organists and church musicians of all backgrounds and experience to improve and sharpen their skills. The event is modeled on the Merrimack Valley Chapter's successful Mini-Conventions. Invite a friend, student, or colleague. Registrants and presenters may bring their own books, compositions, and CDs to sell; they will keep the proceeds. People are also welcome to bring any "pre-owned" music, books or recordings for a "flea market," the proceeds to benefit the Young Organists Initiative. Baker's Best of Needham will provide a catered lunch. There will be time for visiting and browsing.

8:30 – 9:00: Coffee and Registration

9:00 – 9:45: Anthem Reading. Registrants are invited to bring multiple copies of a single anthem for choirs of all abilities, including music for children or youth.

10:00 – 10:45: Andrew Shenton on "Organ Music of Franz Liszt, Large and Small"

11:00 – 11:45: Jay Lane on "A Unified Sound from Your Volunteer Choir"

12:00 Noon: Lunch, Conversation, and Browsing

1:30 – 2:15: Barbara Bruns on "Leading Youth and Children's Choirs"

2:30 – 3:15: Joe Utterback on "Hymn Improvs with a Jazz Perspective"

The convention will occur at United Parish in Brookline, 210 Harvard Street, Brookline, MA. Parking is available at and around the church. Public transportation: Green Line, C train (Cleveland Circle), inbound stop at Coolidge Corner, walk down Harvard Street to the church; outbound stop at Kent Street, walk west (outbound direction) on Beacon Street, turn left down Harvard Street to the church.

Full day is $48.00, and either a morning or afternoon half-day session is $32.00. Lunch is included in all registrations, whether full-day or half-day. Students with appropriate identification may subtract $10.00 from the cost. To keep expenses low, registrants are asked to bring desserts to share with others for lunch.

PRE-CONVENTION REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. Complete the form below, enclose a check or money order payable to Boston AGO, and mail to Nadia Stevens, Registrar, 46 Englewood Ave., Apt. 23, Brighton, MA 02135, by Tuesday, October 4. Because of the limited time frame, Nadia will accept good-faith registration by e-mail through Thursday, October 6: nadiaste@earthlink.net; e-mail registrants will need to pay at the convention.

AGO membership is not required for attendance. Please photocopy and pass this flyer to colleagues, friends, and students. If you have questions, please contact Sub-dean Dan McKinley, 978-774-3163 x353, dan.mckinley@ctr-anglican.org; Barbara Owen, 978-465-2068, owenbar@juno.com; or Nadia Stevens, 617-232-8074, nadiaste@earthlink.net.

Dean's Message

I confess that I love musical theater. Since '95 I've seen over 70 musicals in Boston, on Broadway or London's West End, and at Connecticut's Goodspeed Opera House. With ART's sublime "Gershwin's Porgy & Bess" still ringing in my ears, today's musings are accompanied by show tunes.

"Comedy Tonight" (A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum)
"Something familiar. Something peculiar. Something for everybody. Comedy [AGO] tonight!" Check out the coming year's program menu with your calendar in hand. Won't you make time for at least one this year?

"There's a Sunny Side to Every Situation" (42nd Street)

Mark Dirksen's resignation as Convention Coordinator was a dark moment. The sunny side? Ray Cornils has thoughtfully agreed to accept this post and the Steering Committee is unanimously thumbs up. We expect the official approval process to be swift and affirmative. Welcome and thanks, Ray!

"It Ain't Necessarily So" (Porgy & Bess)

Think our large Chapter doesn't need you? Ain't so! I can put face to only half of the names in our yearbook. (Yes, I actually counted.) We need your participation, energy and ideas to thrive.

"To Dream the Impossible Dream" (Man of La Mancha)

Your dues provide vital support for the Guild's mission locally and nationally. "Shout out" to our dual members in New England, New York, Maryland, Virginia, Florida, the Carolinas, Arizona, Texas, and Australia!

"Getting to Know You" (The King & I)

This Chapter could use some radical hospitality. Would you be a greeter at Chapter programs or help with refreshments? I'd like to hear from you! Consider gathering organists in your area for brunch some Sunday. Invite a new organist in your town or denomination to a Chapter program.

"Is Anybody There? Does Anybody Care?" (1776)

The last Newsletter sought ideas for Chapter programs (Dan McKinley) and potential members for the Professional Development Committee (Charlene Higbe). Hello... anybody out there?

BAGO November programs with organ virtuoso Joan Lippincott

1) Masterclass on hymn playing, Saturday, November 12, 10 am to 12 noon, St. John’s Evangelical Lutheran Church, 16 Great Road, Sudbury. Co-sponsored with the Worcester Chapter. Attendees are welcome to play. J. W. Walker organ. Free admission.

2) Organ recital, Sunday, November 13, 4 pm, Parish of All Saints, Ashmont, 209 Ashmont Street, Dorchester. (Around the corner from Red Line’s Ashmont Station; church is handicapped-accessible.) $20 general admission; $15 students, seniors, AGO members. Music of Ned Rorem, Bach (Passacaglia), Mozart (Fantasia in F Minor, K. 608), Liszt’s B.A.C.H., Jehan Alain’s Trois Danses.

What’s Changed?

Chances are we can all think of a time we’ve heard someone bewail, “Everything’s changed!” while another person exclaims, “Nothing ever changes!” – both referring to the same situation, event, or circumstance. How can that be? Expectations and perspectives count for a lot.

If you have choirs gathering this fall after a break, some members likely came expecting new things and others came with the certainty that they already “knew the drill” for the year ahead. You may feel like you are expected to keep things the same, or you may feel pressured to make many changes. No matter where you, your choir, or your churches think they fall in this range, someone else probably has a different opinion. Or two. These are things you may not easily change, but can make an effort to understand other expectations and perspectives.

Be sure to look back at your own plans for change, both big and small. Learning new music, completing your annual employment review, getting to know other musicians, working toward a degree or certification – add your own personal and professional items to this list. Then consider whether you have met your own expectations and how this influences the perspective of those around you.

Would it be a change for you if you participated in Guild events this year? What better time and what better opportunity to try on the possibilities for expectations and perspectives!

“Eighteenth-Century Stringed Keyboard Instruments from a Performance Perspective” Ad Parnassum 9 (April 2011): 75-100. Findings include a very stiff keyboard action for harpsichords, clavichords, and some pianos; and considerably more volume than thought today.

“The Bach/Scheibe Controversy: New Documentation” BACH, Journal of the Riemenschneider Bach Institute 42/1 (2011): 1-45. Corrects misconceptions about the controversy and demonstrates that the anonymous criticism in Scheibe’s journal concerned not the quality of Bach’s church music, but its overwhelming difficulty for singers and instrumentalists.
