Chapter Programs

Monday, September 18, 7:00 p.m.
Opening Service & Installation of Officers
St. Cecilia Parish
18 Belvidere Street, Boston

"Blessed Cecilia, appear in visions to all musicians, appear and inspire..."

(W. H. Auden: Hymn to St. Cecilia)

What could be more apt for the Boston chapter's opening service and installation of new officers than to gather at St. Cecilia Parish? And what could be more apt than a service filled with glorious music, including two world premieres, two choral groups, four organists, a trumpeter, plus two clergy? Hosts Richard Clark, music director and organist at St. Cecilia, and Rev. John Unni, pastor of the parish, have put together a decidedly festive event – one you certainly will not want to miss! All followed by a reception to socialize, meet, and greet as we open a new Chapter season.

The premiers:

Scenes, for trumpet and organ, by Daniel Pinkham
The Holy Spirit Will Teach You, a new choral work by Richard Clark

The performers:

Youth pro Musica, directed by Peter Krasinski
St. Cecilia Men's Schola, directed by Richard Clark
Leo Abbott, Richard Clark, Andrew Paul Holman, and Peter Krasinski, organists
Richard Kelley, trumpeter

Rev. Unni will offer reflections on our call to ministry, based on the Biblical verse, John 15: 16. The Rev. Earl Holt, Minister of King's Chapel, Boston, will lead the installation of new officers.

The Church and Organ: St. Cecilia Parish was established in 1888. St. Cecilia's original organ of 24 stops was built in 1902 by the Hutchings-Votey Organ Company, and was rebuilt in 1954 with 32 stops. Timothy Smith and Theodore Gilbert began a massive reconstruction of the organ in 1998. The current Smith & Gilbert Organ of 4 manuals, 6 divisions, 50 ranks and 2,926 pipes was dedicated on the Feast of St. Cecilia, November 22, 1999.

Directions: Located off Mass. Ave. & Boylston St., between Berklee College of Music and the Hilton/Sheraton hotels. By T: Green Line to Hynes Convention Center/ICA; Bus #1/CT1 on Mass. Ave. Parking on street or nearby garages and lots.

Monday, October 9, 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Columbus Day in Cambridge

In the spirit of the Columbus holiday, explore churches and organs in Cambridge, and discover new ideas for your music-making! Here is the preliminary lineup of presenters, all of whom are Chapter members, on topics which should be of interest to all members. Plans are to go to different churches near Harvard Square, all within an easy walk of one another. Lunch will be included in the $30 registration fee. Full details about locations, times of sessions, and registration, will be in the October newsletter and posted on the Boston AGO website.

Dean's Message

Happy New Year! September is probably the one time of year in our profession when we have had the chance to take it a little easier for at least parts of the Summer to breathe out, breathe in, and recharge our batteries. Thus re-energized, we sharpen our pencils and claws, eager to attack a new season.

And how about those New Year's resolutions? Now is definitely the time for them. You know you'll never get around to it on January 1 while you're still not quite sure that you did indeed survive another Christmas. And I'm not talking about ridiculous diet fads. And certainly not any of the usual stuff about being a better person and helping your fellow man. As I see it, it all boils down to this: What can I do to better serve my AGO chapter this year?

I attended my first national convention in ChicAGO over the summer (when will we ever again have a convention in a city where it's spelled out for us right there in the name? A winter conclave in Trinidad and TobAGO might be the winning ticket) – and the scales certainly fell from my eyes. There is enormous diversity within this Guild of ours. This of course is true within the Boston chapter as well. And I'd love for us to bring this diversity to the fore as we head to the future.

One of the nice things about your local AGO chapter is that it's very easy to get involved in its governance. Executive committee meetings are open to all members, so all you have to do is show up and give voice to your views. It's also easy to volunteer – we're always looking for helping hands at our various programs, as well as fresh faces to run Chapter services and serve on our many committees.

If you are new to the Chapter, most of our programs contain a social component where you have occasion to meet and greet fellow Chapter members. If you are "old" to the Chapter, those very same events present a very time-efficient way to catch up with friends and colleagues that you see all too seldom.

Now, for those of us who like to stay home, BAGO has the answer for that as well. Hopefully, you have all heard of the national membership campaign, cleverly titled "Each one reach one." This is for you! You may already hold in your possession your spanking new beautiful yearbook, for which we owe inordinate amounts of thanks to Eric Huenneke who has once again steered our ship through the treacherous waters of the editing process. Now, when you first crack its spine, you're bound to browse through and immediately be struck by righteous outrage when you notice the absence of some of your dearest colleagues. Fly into action, grab the phone and call them up and tell them how easy it is to get into the next edition of the yearbook. E-mail is most definitely a good option, too. Each one, reach one! Or reach five or six as long as you're at it...

To summarize, here's my proposed list of New Year's resolutions:

1. Come to opening service at St. Cecilia's church, Belvidere St. in the Back Bay on Monday, September 18, 7 PM. If you want to help with the reception, call Lee Ridgway at 617-436-1193.

2. Come to our first executive committee meeting on Monday, September 25, 7 PM at King's Chapel House, 64 Beacon Street, Boston.

3. Get a colleague or two to join the Guild so we get representation from as many different facets of organandom as we can.

For a gold star, do all three of the above. For silver, two. If you don't need a star, just do one, and it will still be a great start to a new season.

Requiescat in Pacem - John Andrew Ross

John Ross passed away on July 12 after a long illness. John was organist of the UU church in Brookline for many years, and the originator for the "Black Nativity" play, a Boston Christmas tradition which he directed for some time. He was also an active member of the Boston AGO until his illness worsened a few years ago. A committed church musician and a truly gentle man, his presence will be missed by all who knew him.

Class This FallOrgan Literature for the Church Organist

A survey of various periods, styles, and composers of organ music, as well as practical examples, registrational and performance practice principles. Times to be arranged. Instructor - Dr. G. Fredrick Guzasky. Classes to be held at St. Stephen's Church, Cohasset. If interested, please e-mail fredboston@msn.com, or call 781-420-6880.

Call for Input on BAGO Placement Services

The Professional Development Committee is beginning a comprehensive review of the Placement process, similar to the work done last year for the Substitute process.

Recognizing the many skills and talents of Boston chapter members, we would be glad to hear from anyone with experience or ideas in that area who would be interested in working with the PDC on issues related to Placement.

Feedback is welcome, and participation in the study is even more welcome!

Calling all liturgical church musicians!

Do you know about the Leadership Program for Musicians?

Find out about us at an Open Teaching Session
for potential students
Saturday, September 16, 9am-4pm
at Trinity Episcopal Church
81 Elm St., Concord, MA

- LPM is a national educational program for church musicians, founded by the Episcopal Church, and now also supported by the ELCA and the Presbyterian Church.
- The sessions in Concord are the only ones offered in New England. LPM is now recruiting church musicians, clergy, and other interested persons for the 2006-08 program.
- The LPM course of study covers organ, piano, or cantor skills; liturgy; hymnody; learning about resources; choral conducting and voice training; philosophy of church music.
- Classes meet one Saturday per month, Sept-June, for two years. Total cost is $1,900 plus materials.
- For further information contact Fiona Vidal-White, MA/LPM coordinator, (781) 449-1436 or vidalwhite@comcast.net.
