Boston Chapter to Host 2011 Pipe Organ Encounters

Plans are moving ahead for the Boston Chapter to host two concurrent, specialized Pipe Organ Encounters during the week of July 17-22, 2011. We will be hosting both a POE/Advanced for the most accomplished high-school players and a POE/Technical for those students interested in organ building. There will be many opportunities for you to be involved — though if you'd like to help with the planning of these events, please contact Christian Lane at christian_lane@harvard.edu. Please volunteer and support the future of our profession — don't just sit around waiting to be asked! This will be an exciting time for our Chapter — mark that week on your calendars now!

Wanted: Yearbook Coordinator

The Boston Chapter Yearbook is a valuable and necessary resource for our membership, and the BAGO has one of the best in the Guild. Its production and appearance in our mailboxes, however, does not happen by magic. The Yearbook coordinator's work takes place mostly in June, July, and August, but does not require a great deal of time. The major task is contacting, mainly by e-mail, past and potential advertisers from members and others. We have complete records from advertisers in the 2009-2010 Yearbook to help in this. Other parts of the work include contacting and coordinating providers of Chapter information for updates, and working with the Yearbook producers, who handle layout, printing, and mailing.

This is the type of work which is ideal for a person — doesn't need to be a Chapter member — who might have some free time this summer. If you are interested, or know someone who is, please contact the Dean, Lee Ridgway: 617-436-1193 or ridgway@mit.edu

Important Information Inside!

“What's New?”

This phrase, along with “How ya doin'?” or even “Whazzup?” are casual greetings among friends. If the question is taken seriously, we might hear more than we bargained for! So as the summer approaches, let's think back over the past year and think about “What's new?” If the rapid response is “same old, same old,” that's likely not totally true. Did any aspects of your job change? Did you complete an annual review with your clergy or personnel committee? Did you learn any new music? Did you think differently about an ongoing frustrating situation?

Perhaps it's the wrong question. Let's consider instead, “What should have been new?” Think carefully. Plan some continuing education? Paint the kitchen? Renegotiate your contract? Get more exercise? Adopt a pet? Listen more, talk less?

Give these some honest thought for even a few moments and your list will astound you. Then move on to consider another very important question: “What will be new?” If you've fallen out of the habit of making plans and setting goals, start small. Whatever your “new” will be, enjoy this gift that you give to yourself. It's likely to make others happy, too!

Organ Library News

The Organ Library and the Boston Chapter jointly sponsored a lecture by Peter Gomes, “Making the Hymnal Your Own” at Harvard's Memorial Church, on April 20. Rev. Gomes spoke of his deep affection for Christian hymnody and about his years as a church organist. He commented in particular on the long process of selection that preceded publication of the new Harvard University Hymn Book. The goal was to be eclectic, respecting the integrity of each hymn and not subjecting the text to ideological revision. The large number of attendees also had the pleasure of singing several hymns from the Hymnal, including one by Peter Gomes himself. Thanks to Joyce Painter Rice, who organized the event and the following reception. An event with Thomas Murray of Yale University is planned for the fall. (Continued on Page 3)

Dean's Message: Passing the Baton (Or Organ Shoes?)

With my term coming to an end as of June 30th, I want to express what a privilege it has been to serve the Boston chapter as dean and sub-dean these past four years. This is still one of the most unique chapters in the Guild, in terms of its size and of what we offer (the Organ Library, the Young Organists Initiative, the Organ Advisory Committee, to name a few). We have a diverse membership ranging from the newly-minted organist who may not yet be sure of pedaling, to world-class performers, and everything in between. And we welcome ALL for whom the organ is a special instrument.

We also have our challenges! The economic collapse has played havoc with church music programs and positions, as well as the programs of other musical organizations with which many of our members are involved. Societal changes are reflected in decreasing numbers of people embracing church as a regular part of the lives. Cultural forces within churches are putting pressure on what music means for worship.

As your new leadership takes over, my charge to every BAGO member is to become more fully engaged with the Chapter. Participate in Chapter activities and undertakings. Make your voices heard as to what you would like to see the Chapter doing for you, as well as for the organ in the public eye (and ear). In these ways, the BAGO will remain a vital force for its members and beyond.

In closing, I want to recognize two BAGO members in particular who have been around the BAGO for enough decades to think of them as fixtures. Michael Kleinschmidt came to Boston in 1993, to All Saints, Ashmont. In 2001 he moved to Trinity Church, Copley Square. In June, he moves to Trinity Cathedral, Portland, Oregon. Michael has been on the BAGO executive committee, performed for the Chapter, led workshops, and most recently chaired our 2009 regional convention. He is a consummate musician and a wonderful person. We will miss him greatly, but send him and his partner Mark off to Portland with our very best wishes!

Yuko Hayashi came to Boston in the 1950s to attend New England Conservatory, and she is still here. Truly one of our world-class members, she attained world renown as a performer and teacher, and as the power on the bench of the Fisk at Old West Church. This year Yuko celebrates her 80th birthday, and we extend our heartiest best wishes to her, and thank her for all she has given to the BAGO over these decades!

Reception to Honor Sally Slade Warner

The 86th Annual Carillon Recital Series at St. Stephen's Church in Cohasset, MA, will begin on Sunday, June 27 at 6 p.m. and continue each Sunday until August 15. Please see the Concert Calendar for individual dates.

The final recital, a tribute to Sally Slade Warner, will be played on Sunday, August 15. All of the music on his program was composed or arranged by Sally, who was carillonner at St. Stephen's from 1985 until her sudden death last December. Born in Worcester, she worked as a musician and organist, and, at Phillips Academy in Andover, held the positions of associate faculty member, music librarian and carillonner.

You are most cordially invited to a reception in Sally's honor, which will be held at 7 pm on Sunday, August 15 (following the recital) in the courtyard of St. Stephen's Church (16 Highland Ave).

RSVP 781-383-1083 (St. Stephen's Church) or 781-383-9599 or marymisha@aol.com

-- Mary Kennedy, Interim Carillonner

Although the Organ Library Web Catalog boasts about 42,000 titles, that number is only a fraction of the music composed for the organ. An acquisition program intended to fill in gaps has been approved by the Organ Library Committee. (One effort will be directed to bringing closer to completion the Library's holdings of the works of Josef Rheinberger and Sigfrid Karg-Elert.) Nevertheless, the impressive size of the collection is directly attributable to many generous donations of music over the years. Please look through your own library this summer and consider donating any organ music for which you no longer have need. It happens that what might be considered "ordinary" items never entered the collection, and you can help to supply them. Gifts are tax-deductible. For more information contact: orglib@bu.edu.
