news and notes for members of Boston Chapter AGO

Boston Chapter First Night Continues!

PLEASE NOTE NEW LOCATION AND TIME!

American Guild of Organists Boston Chapter
First Night Organ Concert at The Mother Church
The First Church of Christ, Scientist
250 Massachusetts Ave., Boston
December 31, 2015 - 4:00 pm

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

The First Church of Christ, Scientist and The Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists are collaborating to continue the popular New Year Eve tradition of an hour long pipe organ event featuring three individual organists. This year's performers will be Rodger Vine, Artist in Residence of Arlington Street Church, Bryan Ashley, Organist of the Mother Church, and Amanda Mole, International Concert Organist. Peter Krasinski, Boston Chapter Dean will serve as the master of Ceremonies for the event.

Many Thanks to The Mother Church and Bryan Ashley for making possible the continuance of this beloved Boston tradition. Come ring in the New Year by hearing one of the great organs of the world!

Come bring your friends family and colleagues to experience this exciting program!

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Our Programs continue to raise interest in the organ and those that play it, compose for it, build organs, and care for them.

Public awareness of our Chapter and its work has been fostered this year by our Opening Service/Concert featuring the Music of Julian Wachner presented by members of the Marsh Chapel and Trinity Wall Street Choirs, Brass and three young organists, "The Planets" presented by Peter Sykes and Vickie Wagner, The Holy Cross Annual Concert featuring a commissioned piece by Anthony Hammond and local organists, "Mayflower to Marathon" hymn sing collaborating with The Hymn Society presented in both an urban and suburban location, and a presentation of the organ music of Gunther Schuller by organist Aaron Sunstein.

What a rich season so far!

The executive board, program committee and your Dean don't want you to miss out on the rest of the season! We have a large chapter and want to see ALL OF YOU at these events because ALL OF YOU are important to us!

Please mark these events on your calendars and keep an eye out for announcements about them. Also, be sure to invite your family, friends and colleagues to these events which are all designed to appeal to the general public and serve our membership by providing high visibility to our instrument and those that make them sing.

I wish each and every one of you a wonderful year ahead filled with the joy, love and power of music. ALL OF YOU!

Peter Edwin Krasinski, Dean
Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists
