Cameron Carpenter Recital:

Featuring the International Touring Organ

Thursday, March 5, 8pm
Sanders Theatre, Cambridge

Brash, outspoken and phenomenally talented, organist and composer Cameron Carpenter brings a whole new dimension to the organ and organ music. He's an electrifying performer with an eclectic, diverse repertoire that ranges from Bach to pop. Don't miss this exciting performance, presented by Celebrity Series of Boston and the Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Volunteers Needed!

Dear Guild Members-

The Executive Committee and I invite you to attend the next three events which are particularly presented to offer the general public various experiences of the organ, the instrument that we love. I am not only reaching out to urge you to attend these events, I'm asking if you might be available to help at one or more of the events. We are looking for volunteers to assist in passing out BAGO flyers at the following events:

- Cameron Carpenter at Sander's Theater, Cambridge, Thursday, March 5.
- Bach Birthday Event at First Lutheran, Boston, Saturday, March 21.
- Ken Cowan Event at Church of the Advent, Sunday, April 26.

Dean Peter Krasinski will provide the materials on site and welcomes you to be a positive and active part of our programming

To sign up to volunteer, please go to www.SignUpGenius.com/go/20F0845AEAF2FABFF2-volunteers

The Dean is hoping that members of our chapter will be a real presence at each (or as many) of these events as possible to represent our chapter to the general public in a positive way and to asset in the following. As always, if you are interested in being a financial contributor to any Boston Chapter event contact the Dean directly at 617.794.4222 or peterkrasinski@icloud.com
Thanks in advance!
