FIRST NIGHT CONTINUES

For many years December 31st in Boston has been a time of excitement, public fun, and cultural experience. After a few moments of trepidation the City of Boston and FIRST NIGHT officials chose to go ahead and celebrate the transition from 2013 to 2014.

Through it all the undaunted Boston Chapter planned to continue the tradition with its annual offering at Arlington Street Church. This event has been lovingly curated by Rodger Clinton Vine for years and has become one of the more visible examples in Boston of organ music designed for and presented to the public.

Boston Chapter Sub-Dean Peter Krasinski served as Master of Ceremonies. Below is the program, which was most heartily received by an appreciative audience.

Rosalind Mohnsen, Organist

Improvisation, Op. 150, No. 7, in A Minor - Camille Saint-Saëns

Mozart Changes - Zsolt Gárdonyi

In dulci júbilo, Op. 75, No.2 - Sigfrid Karg-Elert

Glenn Goda, Organist; Timothy Macri, Flutist
