Convention Volunteers Needed - Still!

Thanks to you who have responded to the previous request, but we need MANY, MANY MORE Boston Chapter members (or non-members) for the MANY, MANY tasks at the national convention, June 23-27.

Please invite friends, enemies, choir members, church members, neighbors, to participate. Needs: ushering, transportation, workshops, hospitality, registration, carrying stuff. See the list of slots available, and sign up directly by clicking here.

Please support our Convention here.

New Music Concert II

Monday, May 19, 7:30 p.m.

Marsh Chapel, Boston University, 735 Commonwealth Ave, Boston

Boston AGO presents the second in our series of concerts highlighting composers commissioned to write for the 2014 AGO NATIONAL CONVENTION. This will give our membership and the general public a chance to hear the various compositional language of those composers from whom we will hear new works during the convention.

Louise Mundinger, David Tierney, and Heinrich Christensen will present music of Libby Larsen, Robert Sirota, Pamela Decker, and Hilary Tann on the Casavant Opus 2000 pipe organ.

Performers: Louise Munding, David Tierney and Heinrich Christensen

BAGO Annual Meeting + St. Paul's Choir School Concert

Friday, May 30

DINNER - 4:30 p.m., Friday, May 30

Grafton Street Pub & Grill, 1230 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge.

A section of the Grafton Street Pub & Grill will be reserved for BAGO members. Join your colleagues in lively conversation, and share your season's successes (or failures!) with friends. Pay for your own meal. Reservations needed by Thursday, May 29: Sub-Dean Peter Krasinski, peterkrasinski@icloud.com

ANNUAL MEETING - 6:00 p.m., Friday, May 30

DiGiovanni Hall, St. Paul's Choir School, Harvard Square, 29 Mount Auburn Street, Cambridge.

Light refreshments and wine will be served during our annual meeting, which will include a presentation about the 2014 AGO National Convention. Please submit names (and brief information, if possible) of BAGO members who have died in the past year: Dean Dan McKinley, dan.mckinley@ctr-anglican.org.

CONCERT - 7:00 p.m., Friday, May 30

St. Paul's Church, Harvard Square, 29 Mount Auburn Street, Cambridge.

Celebrate 50 years of music-making at St. Paul Choir School with an organ concert by students, alumni, and faculty, sponsored by BAGO. Free admission for Boston Chapter members. Look for your special entrance at the door. Click here for poster & more information.
